Idea:

Write a short e-book about: "@Wix what's going on? Opened a new account for a new business, but you won't refund even though you...".

Source context: @Wix
what's going on? Opened a new account for a new business, but you won't refund even though your platform doesn't support our booking tool? Calling it a "renewal" is wild. Do I need to move everything to @squarespace since their customer service actually shows up?

Structure:

1. Introduction
2. Top 5 Tips
3. Conclusion

Keep it concise (approx 500 words).
